Anne van Dijk, founder ADrises (offers courses about transgressive behaviour based on experimental expertise). Email: anne@ad-rises.com Instagram: @ad.rises / @anne_v_dijk LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/dijkannevan Website: www.ad-rises.com

Resumen/Abstract:

The presentation is about Anne's own experience with sexual harassment in sports when she was thirteen years old. She talks about her own experience, about how she was helped, about the definition of transgressive behaviour and about victim blaming. It's essential that everyone sets their own boundaries, that they stand up for their boundaries and that they respect the boundaries of others.
